Headteacher's Message

This week we have elected and announced our new School Councillors. To be elected the children have had to write and deliver a speech as to why their peers should vote for them. The names of those elected can be seen later on in the newsletter.

Our School Councillors are the voice of the children, and will have regular meetings with Miss Smith and Mrs Addy. The first one will be next week. Congratulations to those children who have been elected. You will now be a fantastic role model for all the children in school.

Miss Ramsbottom 😊

PUPIL NEWS

The Scholastic Book Fair will be in school on Monday and Tuesday. The children have visited the book fair today and should have brought home a 'wish list' of titles they might like. If you would like to purchase these titles, you are welcome to attend the book fair in the new hall after school along with your child or you can pay for the titles online (details will be on the wish list leaflet). You must then return the wish list form to school for the books to be ordered on your behalf! Every time you buy a book from the Book Fair, school receives a donation to purchase books so thank you in advance for all your support!

Sporting News - On Wednesday, some Year 5 and 6 boys went to the Spirit of Sport at Blessed Trinity to play in a football tournament. The boys did so well. They played 4 games and won all 4. We would like to give a special mention to Charlie and Samuel who both received Sports badges for great attitude and performance. Charlie made some terrific saves and Samuel scored a fantastic goal! Well done to all the boys who represented our school fantastically.
