Headteacher's Message

The summer holiday seems like a long way off as school is now back in full swing, with the children working hard, displays going up in classes and the buzz of a busy and happy school.

As we start our fourth week on Monday, and children will also have got back into their routines at home, with the many clubs starting too. Whilst understanding how busy life is I would ask that parents fit in reading and completing homework with their child. It's so very important.

Thank you for your continued support and have a lovely weekend!

Miss Ramsbottom 😊

Pupil News

We are really excited as the Scholastic Book Fair is coming to school again – 2nd Oct to 7th Oct in the new hall at 3.30pm! Every book sold at our Fair helps to earn FREE BOOKS for school so add the date to your diary!

Please make sure all coats and jumpers are clearly labelled – your child may be able to recognise their coat or jumper but if they are found by someone else in school, we will struggle to return them to the rightful owner if they are not named!

Quick reminder that only fruit, veg, yoghurt or cheese can be eaten at playtimes.
