

Headteacher's Message

My message absolutely has to be along the same lines as my DoJo message on Wednesday evening.

As you will know we have been inspected by Ofsted earlier this week. The report will be shared with parents as soon as we have it. Thank you, to those parents who took the time to complete the Parent View questionnaire.

I do have to repeat how amazing our children were. The inspectors were extremely impressed with everyone's behaviour and attitude to learning and enjoyed listening to some of the children talk about our school.

As I promised, the children have had a day of rewards and treats today. Back to normal next week of course!!

I can't finish my message without, of course, thanking all the adults, including our Governing Body, who make up the amazing team at Briercliffe. They are so committed to providing the absolute best for the children every single day.

Thank you!!

Miss Ramsbottom 😊

Pupil News

On Thursday, Year 4 went on a trip to Bolton Museum as part of their learning about The Egyptians! They looked at lots of different artefacts, dressed up as Ancient Egyptians and even saw a display of The Unknown Man, a 3,400 year old mummified man who lived during the Ramesside Period of Egypt! The children were, as always, brilliantly behaved and everyone had a great day! Thank you to all the parents and to the adults who made the trip such a success!
