

Headteacher's Message

Goodness, week 26 of the academic year!! I can't believe we are 2 terms into this academic year. The children have all completed their end of term assessment last week and we can see lots of great progress. All the children are working so hard and are a pleasure to be around in school.

Not that you would think it over the last few days, but Spring is officially here so hopefully the children will be able to enjoy the sunshine and fresh air over the holidays.

Thank you to everyone and enjoy the holidays!

Miss Ramsbottom 😊

Egg Decorating Competition!

Thank you soooo much for all the amazing egg decorations that have been brought into school this week! They were 'eggscellent'! Everyone has loved seeing all the creativity, effort and thought that has gone into each and every one! Thank you everyone for coming to visit the 'Eggshibition!' The winners and runners up were announced today and well done to everyone who took part!

Year 1 Trip to St James' Church

Last week, the children in Year 1 walked down to St James' Church as part of their learning in RE about Baptism. When they got there, they met the Vicar and had a 'pretend' Baptism ceremony! They picked family members and godparents and baptised 2 baby dolls! They even had a Baptism party when they came back to school! Well done children, you were all brilliant!

PARENT EVENING

We have 50 (13%) children whose parents did not attend parents' evening this half term. The relationship between home and school is vital so if any parents would like to make another appointment, please speak to your child's class teacher. Thank you.
